

Write a short poem.

Fairy Party

- Where have all the fairies gone?
Into their hiding places
I see one here
I see one there
And all their tiny faces
They're leaping and dancing all around
They're leaping off the ground
- And all of a sudden
It's time to eat
All the fairies
Got to their feet
and went to eat
Then they played a game
And the dancing started again

★ Please write your name and age on the back.

Draw a picture to illustrate your poem.

✓ Yes the library has my permission to post my child's poem &/ artwork, in the Children's Department, on the website or to the library's social media accounts.